Now is the time to register for Bob Kirschbaum's exciting Woodbine Summer Reading Conference. This conference is scheduled for June 26th and 27th in Woodbine, Iowa, at the elementary school.

This unique conference is for teachers, by teachers. Attendees will have the opportunity to hear from some of the Midwest's brightest practicing educators, authors, and speakers who will share numerous practical and useful teaching strategies.

Speakers and Presenters...

- Patty Duncan – Patty Duncan – Patty has worked and been trained by Ruth Culham, the author of Traits Writing Program. Additionally, she has participated in the Iowa Writing Project and has taught writing for many years.

6+1 Traits Writing Workshop:

Writing is essential to a student's success and is becoming increasingly important to communication in our global world. This workshop will provide a review of the best practices in teaching writing as well as activities that will engage students. Assessment practices will also be presented.

- Trish Sandbulte – Although teachers have the best of intentions, schools across America are experiencing the demise of the love of reading. Join Trish as she unpacks the book Readicide by Kelly Gallagher and explores how we can shift our thinking to enhance student enjoyment of and passion for reading.

- Legislative Update

- Bob Kirschbaum

- And much more...

The School Place – The Education Station, Where Learning is Fun, will be sponsoring this outstanding conference.

The conference begins with registration on Monday, June 26, from 8:30-9:00 a.m. and will end at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 27. Time for grade level/school sharing will be built into the schedule.

Registration includes a free continental breakfast, lunch, and afternoon snacks and beverages each day. Attendees will also be eligible to participate in drawings for many prizes, and receive a free "Put Magic into Reading" t-shirt.
